LAW VIOLATION CHARGED

Celored Insurance Official Accused by State Department.
Charging violation of the law forbidding the admission in fraternal insurance societies of children under sixteen years old, warrants were sworn out yesterday for the arrest of Maggie L. Walker, grand secretary and treasurer of the Order of St. Luke. This action was taken by Actuary Isaac Devenport, of the State Insurance Department, under orders from Commissioner Joseph Button.
The Order of St. Luke is one of the largest colored societies in the South, and does an immense business. Maggie Walker stands in high esteem among the colored people.
The specific charge against her carries, upon conviction, a fine of $100, which may be assessed against each officer. She will be prosecuted by Commonwealth's Attorney Minitree Folkes.
